Opinion No. 74- 243

Donald E. DeShazer
Assistant State Treasurer
State Capitol
Topeka, Kansas 66612

Dear Mr. DeShazer:

In connection with our opinion of July 16, 1974, issued upon your inquiry regarding the crediting of interest income on moneys within the Attorney General's antitrust suspense fund, it is the further opinion of this office that the transactions crediting such interest income to the State General Fund should be reversed and a like amount credited to the Attorney General's antitrust suspense fund for distribution, by the Attorney General, to those beneficiaries who are entitled to receive such income.

Yours very truly,

VERN MILLER
Attorney General
